STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.,	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	692,500,

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARDISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 28, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 24, 1866.

The Red Strings.

The Standard, true to its demagogical instincts, makes much ado about our remarks, a few days ago, in which we suggested to the Grand Juries the propriety of enquiring into the real character and designs of the Red Strings.

We know nothing of the Red Strings; but we have heard that their designs were not simply political—that one of their objects was to thwart the operation and execution of the laws and to protect their members against the due and proper administration of the law. It was this information that led to the suggestion.

If the "Red String" organization be the same as the "Heroes of America," why have they not adopted the same name and identically the same Constitution and regulations? Mr. Holden says he is not a member of the order, but understands its design. This may or may not be true. If he be in possession of facts, why not give an official resume of their real and only design, in the language of their Constitution itself? If their object is to sustain and perpetuate the Union of the States only, why do they recognize the Radical principle that the Union was broken by secession? If they are purely patriotic, why do they not stand squarely up for the Constitution and the Union as defended by President Johnson? No honest man, who has read the Constitution, can doubt the fidelity of Andrew Johnson to that instrument.—Why do not the Red Strings, if they are true to the Constitution and the Union, sustain the President? Why do they give their support to measures which are clearly designed to change and overturn our present Republican form of government, and thus endanger the Union?—Do they join in the charge against the President that he has usurped powers that do not belong to him? If not so, why give their support to the Congress, whose acts of usurpation are numerous and palpable? If they are friends of the Constitution and of the government, why do they not oppose all infringements of the Constitution, by whomsoever committed? Is it right, because they suppose Congress to be the stronger party than the party of the President, to support the stronger, when its usurpations are tenfold more destructive to the government than those attributed to the President? Are they willing to aid in a change or in the destruction of the government, merely for their own personal benefit in the matter of office?

If, on the other hand, the combination and solidarity of a political but really patriotic organization be the sole object of the Red Strings, while we object to its secresy, because we believe all secret political organizations are dangerous in a Republic, we certainly should not oppose them on account of their political opinions. It is not true that the Editors of the Sentinel belonged to the Know Nothings. The writer of this never belonged to any secret organization of any kind, and knows nothing of grips and signs. Yet we have no objection to secret associations, except those political organizations which are revolutionary in their character. This is what we had learned was the character of the Red String organization.

If, we repeat, the sole object of the Red Strings is to preserve the Union and sustain the government, and its secresy simply relates to what is necessary to promote the combination and union of its organization to effect that object, so far from the Sentinel, or its Editors, or its friends, desiring to indict or interfere with its members in any way, we would defend their right to the possession and promulgation of their opinions to the last. The National Union men, the conservative friends of Andrew Johnson, are battling for the sacred right of freedom of speech and the right to hold and express our political opinions, and we would be the last to desire to muzzle any man or to intimidate any one in the enjoyment of that constitutional and indefeasible right.

But doubt had been created in our mind in regard to the loyalty and patriotism of the designs of the Red Strings, by persons who had been informed of their purposes, and hence we threw out the suggestion. Nor does the threat of the Standard either convince us that we were in error or deter us from looking and enquiring closely into the movements of all suspicious persons or associations. The Grand Juries of the land are the conservators of the law and of the public peace and morals. It is their sworn duty to enquire carefully into all the conduct of all persons who are suspected of crime, or who either violate or evade the law, or form combinations to thwart or interfere with the execution of the law, or who have treasonable designs against the government, State or Federal, and to them the public look for the protection of law and order.

Disabled Soldiers and Destitute Families.

It may not be generally known that a resolution was adopted at the last General Assembly, making it the duty of the Chairman of each County Court to forward to the Governor of the State, on or before the first day of November, a concise statement of the names and number of the disabled soldiers who are citizens of their respective counties, showing the number of those who have lost legs, arms, or are otherwise disabled, in separate lists, together with a list of the destitute families or dependents of those who have died, &c.

It may not be expected that the State will extend aid generally to the deserving cases referred to in the resolution, but statistical information on that subject was much needed at the last session of the Legislature, and it is hoped that measures will be taken to furnish full reports on the subject. It is presumed that reports forwarded at any time previous to the meeting of the General Assembly will answer.

Hon. Thomas L. Clingman was in Salisbury on Saturday last.

"No one, in short, but the most rabid newspaper editors,—men like Rives Pollard, who were writers in time of war and now would be fighters in time of peace,—have ever urged serious objection to the principles of the Howard amendment."—New York Herald.

Was there ever such shameless perversion, such unblushing effrontery, before? It is to the principles of the Howard amendment that the South, almost as a unit, is opposed. It is the same principles which the Legislature of Texas has just rejected and which the people of North Carolina have just emphatically spurned at the ballot-box. It is condemnation of the principles of the amendment that has elicited able and unanswerable arguments from Judge Sharkey, and other leading statesmen of the South, and from such eminent men at the North as Ewing, Curtis, Winthrop and Parker, and from the distinguished gentlemen, North and South, who composed the Philadelphia (August) Convention. And last, but by no means least, it is to the iniquitous, unjust and oppressive principles of the amendment that President Johnson has urged his "serious objection!"

We may well reverse the Herald's impudent assertion and say: That no one, North or South, professes to approve the principles of the amendment, except vindictive factionists, corrupt politicians, disappointed aspirants for office or a subsidized press. The dangerous and subversive nature of those principles can not stand the test of a calm, dispassionate and intelligent investigation. The Herald, certainly, has never attempted to argue the subject. With that venal sheet, passion, policy and pay are the governing motives.

State Agricultural Society.

The members and friends of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society are hereby notified and respectfully invited to attend a called meeting of the Society, to be held at the Capitol, in Raleigh, on Tuesday, the 27th of November next, at 12 o'clock, M.

W. R. HOLT, President.

P. F. PESCUD, Secretary.

[We are pleased to make the above announcement. Our agricultural interests must be promoted and put on the right track. Our cotemporaries will please give circulation to the above.—Eds. Sentinel.]

WHEN all of the Legislative returns shall have been received, we will classify the members elect properly, We adhere to our original opinion that there will not be over twenty Radicals in the Assembly. We think, indeed, that the number will not be so large.

State News.

PERSON COUNTY.—The poll in this county was as follows: Senate,—Cunningham 436, Smith 175. House,—Bradsher 410, Wilkerson 198. All of these gentlemen were opposed to the Howard amendment, and the only issue made was on Repudiation. Messrs. Cunningham and Bradsher, the anti-Repudiationists, it will be seen, are elected by handsome majorities.

PITT COUNTY.—Senate—C. Perkins, 837.—House—J. Galloway 283, W. R. Williams 219, Geo. Johnson 148, Wm. Hawker 43. Perkins, Galloway and Williams elected.

People separated in the best of spirits, heartily content that the county had shown so well. Certainly, from beginning to end, it was a creditable affair. Col. Royster, the Marshals and gentlemen of the committee, did all in their power to render the exhibition entertaining and useful to the public,—nothing more could have been exacted from politeness and affability than what they displayed.

Patriotic Sentiments of a Charleston Grand Jury.

At the present term of the United States Court now holding in Charleston, the Grand Jury, in the course of their presentments, gave vent to the following patriotic sentiments, which were endorsed by Judge Bryan, with the preface that he had differed with the State in its political views in the past, but hoped now to see all the people united and harmonious once more:

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The Grand Jury, before closing their duties, feel constrained to refer to the state of the country. The peace now reigning throughout the whole country, after four years of civil war of the most sanguinary character recorded on the pages of history during the last century, is a source of most devout congratulation. When we look around and witness the civil courts fully organized, and know that all our wrongs and grievances will be adjudicated before a jury of our countrymen, instead of before military courts and other tribunals of a similar character, we have ample cause to be thankful for the peace which we are now enjoying, and should ardently desire that the sword may ever remain sheathed, and that our country may never know war any more. It is fervently hoped that the National Congress, at its next session, will dispassionately consider the state of the country, and direct its whole efforts to bring about a full restoration of the Union by the admission of all the States to that representation in the national councils guarantied them by the Constitution, and entirely remove or modify all disqualifying acts, especially the test oath, by which the citizens of the Southern States are debarred from accepting offices that they are eminently qualified to fill, and in doing so would reflect credit upon the State at large.

Our Northern brethren should exercise a good degree of charity in their legislation, and remember that the people of the Southern States, more especially the people of South Carolina, have been educated in the school of States Rights doctrines, and really believed that their allegiance was due to the State, and that the State, not the citizen, owed allegiance to the General Government. They honestly believed such to be their duty, and so acted. Now that it has been decided that the citizen's allegiance is due to the General Government, they have accepted the issue, and will faithfully abide by it. In view of all these facts, we trust that at an early day all barriers to a full and complete restoration of all the States to their equal rights will be removed, and that we will again present to the world the happy spectacle of a united people.

THE HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Grand Jury would also direct the attention of the proper authorities of the Government to the case of the Hon. Jefferson Davis, who has been held in confinement since the 23d of April, 1865, and more earnestly urge upon them to use all efforts to give him a speedy trial, or release him on bail. It is but justice that he should be tried or released. His counsel have made repeated efforts to have him brought to trial, and are still exerting themselves to that end. His longer detention without a trial cannot but reflect with discredit upon the country, whilst the common dictates of humanity demand speedy action in his case, as his bodily health and mind are fast becoming irreparably impaired from his long imprisonment.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 24, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Agriculturists, North and South, will be deeply interested in the sale of Dr. Holt's property, advertised to-day in our columns. Linwood is a model farm; perhaps there is nothing superior to it in the South. Dr. Holt has for many years been the leading farmer in this State. His lands are in the best condition, as is everything else about him.—Scientific knowledge and practical sense, added to his great energy, have been expended largely upon his farms, utensils, stock, &c. His flouring mill is one of the best in the State. His stock of horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs is all of the best breeds, and they are sold in this State at the highest prices. This sale offers the strongest inducements to purchasers.

L. E. Heartt, Agent, announces new and attractive arrivals, to which we take pleasure in directing the attention of the public.

R. B. Andrews & Co. are daily receiving accessions to their superb assortment of clothing, &c. This establishment is conducted with an energy and completeness second to no house in the South.

The Clerk of the Superior Court gives notice of a special Term for this County, to be held on the 2nd. Monday of December.

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—If there be anything of which the State of North Carolina may be justly proud it is of its State charities. Whatever else may befall us, they should be fostered and cherished. The amount of good which they have wrought in the cause of humanity is far above the paltry computation of dollars and cents. We wish that every man, woman and child in the State could see the practical evidences of the benefits which, under excellent management, they are accomplishing for the unfortunates for whom they were designed, and they would feel an honest and grateful exultation in the contemplation.

A recent visit to the Lunatic Asylum has impressed us more forcibly than ever with the great importance of this noble institution, the beneficial results of which it has been the instrument, and the efficiency, judgment and thoroughness with which its affairs are conducted. All of the departments are in perfect working order, and admirable system, regularity and economy appear to prevail throughout the establishment. No jarring, obstruction or confusion are anywhere evident, but everything seems to progress with as much smoothness, as to duty, as would prevail in an ordinary well-conducted household.

The Lunatic Asylum, as many of our readers abroad are unaware, is a stately and imposing edifice, 720 feet long, and three stories high, situated on a commanding edifice overlooking the city. The first floor of the centre building is devoted to offices and dining rooms for the subordinate officials of the institution, apothecary shop, &c.; the second to the use of the Superintendent and family; and the third to a neat little Chapel, &c. Either wing, on each floor, is composed of wards for the insane,—female wards on the right and male on the left. These wards are attended by competent keepers, and are arranged with that degree of comfort and accommodation that are necessary and proper to the peculiar cases of the inmates.—There are at present about 165 patients,—about equally divided between the sexes.

The entire building is heated by steam, and water in abundance for drinking, bathing and clothes-washing, is supplied by the same agency. The cooking, also, is done through the same means. The gas for the entire building is manufactured on the premises.

One of the most interesting, as it is one of the most valuable and economic features of the institution, is the immense garden, from which the inmates are supplied with seasonable vegetables the year round, and which is worked mainly by the tractable lunatics under proper supervision. They are thus afforded exercise and diversion. The Superintendent bestows much care and attention upon this important adjunct, and has managed to extract from a soil of wretched poverty the finest stock of vegetables we have ever seen,—rivalling, in quality and quantity, the famous truck-farms to be seen in the vicinity of Northern cities.

We have not the space to devote to such a full description of this asylum as we should like to give. So far as we are competent to judge, the moral administration of the establishment is expert and successful, while the practical management of its complicated details is rigid, prompt and thorough. To conduct and govern so extensive an institution requires watchfulness, experience and professional ability,—and these we believe to be well-blended in Dr. Fisher.

The Board of Supervisors, of which the Governor is ex officio Superintendent, and under whose general direction the affairs of the institution are conducted, are vigilant and unremitting in their duties.

Long may this great charity stand a monument to the munificence and humanity of the State! May it never appeal in vain for a helping hand to the same noble spirit which first gave it existence!

BIBLICAL RECORDER.—We are glad to see that the enterprising Editor has enlarged this excellent journal, giving to his older readers a larger sized type, that is better for feeble eyes, We have heretofore warmly commended this excellent Baptist paper to the patronage of that large denomination. The carrier failed to bring us last week's issue.

CIRCUS RECEIPTS.—We learn that the gross receipts of the Circus, in this City, on Monday last, were $1,003. At least that is the amount returned to the District Revenue Assessor.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, October 23rd.—Dan. Coleman, Concord; Dr. W. R. Holt, Lexington; R. F. Simonton and lady, Statesville, N. C.; J. Suttle, Newbern; F. E. Davis, N. Y.; Dr. A. B. Chapin, Roanoke Island; W. O. Smith, N. Y.; Samuel P. Horton, Smithfield; Mr. Moore and lady, Wilmington; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; B. Crosby, N. Y.; C. Royster, Granville; G. Riley, Lexington; R. M. Powell, Caswell.

CABBAGE.—We have never witnessed so favorable a year in North Carolina for raising cabbage. Almost every one, who has a good garden, has raised them successfully. We learn that they have been reared in great abundance, and of excellent quality, in all our upper counties. In the Eastern counties the winter cabbage has not been so successful.

We would suggest to our winter cabbage raisers, that if they will take proper care of them, and put them in crates, or something of that kind, large quantities of them can be sold this winter in the Raleigh, Goldsboro', Newbern and Wilmington markets. Moreover, it they will put them up properly in barrels for sour krout, any quantity can be sold at good prices. Our people should put them up in a manner to compete with the Northern article in the Baltimore and New York markets. Try it.

Being invited to the wedding of a young lady he dearly but hopelessly loved, a young man in Memphis undertook suicide.

A gentleman who was induced to listen to Miss Dickinson, was asked on coming out what he thought of the lecture? "Think!" said he, "I think Daniel Webster died at the right time! and before a corrupted public opinion was willing to receive its interpretation of constitutional law from the lips of an old maid."

New Cotton Regulatons.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued additional regulatons concerning the transportation of cotton in bond. The bond may be given by the consignee in the district to which the cotton is to be shipped and transmitted to the collector of the district in which the cotton is produced. The bond being properly filed, the assessor will issue permits based upon weight as reported by the owner,—any want of occuracy in such report of weights to be corrected by the certificate of weights at the point to which cotton was shipped. This avoids the necessity of having the cotton weighed by a government officer prior to shipment. The old regulations still remain in force and will be observed whenever parties wish to ship in the manner there provided.

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

W. H. CROW,
General Agent,
For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton N.C

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. The square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C.,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign
